DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/6/09 has been entered.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 4/6/09, with respect to pending claims 25, 31, 34, and 37-54 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The previous grounds of rejection have been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 25, 31, 37-40, 43-44, 46-48, and 52-53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding independent claim 25, this claim recites "a second management area storing a latest first data block recorded in the first management area when no further recording can be made on the computer readable medium". It is unclear how the second management area stores a latest data block if "no further recording can be made on the computer readable medium". More specifically, the computer readable medium is inclusive of all recordable areas of the medium. Therefore, if "no further recording can be made on the computer readable medium", then the second management area would be unable to store the latest first data block. Claims 31, 46, 48, 52, and 53 recite substantially similar limitations to the above recited limitation of claim 25 and are also rejected as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Additionally, dependent claims 37-40, 43-44, 47 are also rejected for being dependent from rejected, indefinite claims. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 34, 41, 42, 45, 49, 50, 51, and 54 are allowed.

The prior art taken either singularly or in combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitations of the independent claims 34 and 49.

Regarding claim 34, the prior art taken either singularly or in combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest a method of reproducing data from a recording medium, the recording medium including a data area having a user area and a non-user area, the user area including a plurality of recording-units, the method comprising: reproducing at least a portion of data recorded on the recording medium based on a first data block including a plurality of sectors and a second data block including a plurality of sectors recorded in a first management area of the recording medium when further recording can be made on the recording medium, the first management area being a temporary defect management area, the first data block including first information including recordation status indicating whether or not each recording unit of the user area has recorded data and the second data block having second information including a defect list, wherein respective last sectors of the first and second data blocks include third information including a first pointer pointing to an address where the latest information is recorded and a second pointer pointing to an address where latest second information is recorded; and reproducing at least a portion of data recorded on the recording medium based on a first data block in a second management area of the recording medium when no further recording can be made on the recording medium, the second management area being a defect management area, wherein the first data block recorded in the second management area is based on a latest first data block recorded in the first management area.

Independent claim 49 is drawn to the apparatus for reproducing corresponding to the method of reproducing the same recited in claim 34 and is allowed for the reasons provided above.

Dependent claims 41, 42, 45, 50, 51, and 54 are allowed with their respective base claims.

Claims 25, 31, 37-40, 43-44, 46-48, and 52-53 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hwang et al. (US PgPub 2004/0076096) discloses a method and apparatus for managing disc defects using temporary defect management information. Gotoh et al. (US 6,581,167) discloses an information recording medium, information recording method, and information recording/reproduction system. Takahashi (US 5,914,928) discloses an information recording disk having a replacement area. Ueda et al (US PgPub 2001/0026511) discloses an information recording medium. Ito et al. (US 6,160,778) discloses an information recording medium.
